

GRAPEVINE

VINTAGE ★ TEXAS

Historic Grapevine, Texas Is the Ideal Mid-point Gateway for Your Route 66 Journey.

Grapevine is host to Dallas Fort Worth International (DFW) Airport, welcoming 67 international destinations with nonstop flights, and is only a one-hour drive to Oklahoma. Whether you're planning to head East to Chicago or West to Los Angeles, Grapevine is the perfect starting point.

AFTER YOUR FLIGHT, RELAX AND UNWIND in this charming Texas town before setting off to explore the “Mother Road.” Grapevine’s Historic Main Street District is a quick commuter-rail ride from DFW Airport. Stroll along this safe and walkable street lined with unique boutiques, cafés and winery tasting rooms. With more than 21 hotels Grapevine has accommodations for any budget, allowing you to begin your Route 66 tour rested and refreshed.

GrapevineTexasUSA.com

Spend time on Historic Main Street and shop unique boutiques, eat unforgettable meals at the cafés and bistros and savor fine wines at the Texas winery tasting rooms. Enjoy an excursion in Grapevine Vintage Railroad's vintage 1920s coaches. Be entertained at the Texas Star Dinner Theater, Historic Palace Theatre and Harvest Hall.

Make sure to visit Esparza's Restaurante Mexicano, the Margarita Capital of Texas, eat the famous Bowl of Red (chili) at Tolbert's Restaurant and Chili Parlor and grab brunch from under the 1928 Model T Ford at Willhoite's Restaurant- the location of the original service station in Grapevine, right next to the original jail! There's so much to see and do, plan your trip today.

Pro tip: Save on airport fees and rent your car in Grapevine when you are ready to continue your Route 66 adventure.

For more information and to plan your trip, contact Heather Egan, Director of Leisure & International Sales, Grapevine Convention & Visitors Bureau at HEgan@GrapevineTexasUSA.com or +1.817.410.3561

